

Fertőd Központ

149 000 000 HUF

A home should offer enough space for everyone to find their own place - while also being a place where people truly enjoy coming together. That is exactly the feeling this spacious family house in Fertőd provides. Here, generous living space is combined with a peaceful, family-friendly environment and a location that offers long-term value and convenience.

With approximately 270 m² of living space, the renovated property offers exceptional room and flexible possibilities. Whether for a large family, multi-generational living, or combining home and work, the layout creates numerous opportunities. The bright rooms and comfortable ceiling height create an open and welcoming atmosphere that is immediately noticeable.

The house includes a spacious living room, five rooms, and additional possibilities for further use or development. The layout is complemented by a large kitchen, two pantries, two bathrooms, three separate toilets, several storage rooms, and two attic rooms. The structure of the home is practical and well thought out - ideal for family life while still providing privacy for everyone.

In recent years, the property has ...
